Aankhen is a Hindi-language Indian film released in 1968. It was directed by Revathi and produced by Shilpa Productions. The film, which tells the story of a poor musician who takes on an affluent suitor to win her love, starred Nirupa Roy and Mehmood Khan in lead roles . The movie revolves around two characters: Kailash Rathore (played by Nirupa Roy) and Dinesh Chaturvedi (played by Mehmood Khan). Kailash is a poor musician with dreams of becoming an accomplished musician, while Dinesh is wealthy and constantly has the upper hand over his love interest. Their love is tested through various hurdles created by their individual circumstances. Kailash is a local musician, who belongs to a poor family. She loves Dinesh, who comes from an affluent background. He has bought her paintings at an exhibition for which she sold them so that her father could eat. Dinesh takes advantage of the fact that Kailash's only possession is a bicycle with broken parts and he buys it from her so that she would not be able to come to college where he studies. He gives the bicycle to his sister, Sandhya (played by Aruna Irani) who resents Kailash as she thinks that Dinesh does not care for her but rather likes Kailash. He then creates a situation in which his sister and Kailash fight and Sandhya gets the bicycle back. Dinesh later gives Kailash a new bicycle, but she throws it away in anger. Dinesh begins to care for her when their parents die and he starts taking care of her financially. He also helps Kailash in getting admitted into music college following encouragement from his mother (played by Leela Majumdar). Kailash is admitted in college before Dinesh, who pays tuition fee of all the students of his class. Dinesh also brings Kailash to meet his parents (played by Vasant Gayakwal and Meera Chopra) who are impressed with her. Dinesh even takes her to meet his parents where his mother decides to purchase a painting for Dinesh to show her appreciation. Dinesh buys the painting for Kailash, but she throws it away in anger. One day, Dinesh tells her that he has fallen in love with Sandhya and asks for Kailash's hand in marriage. Heartbroken, Kailash begs him to marry Sandhya instead of her as she does not want him to feel sorry for her. Dinesh then goes to see Sandhya and starts crying that Kailash has given him a tough time and that she does not want to marry him. Sandhya realises her mistake, but it is too late as Dinesh refuses to get married to her. One day, Dinesh's mother buys some goods from Kailash's father. Kailash's father is surprised to see Dinesh there. Dinesh tells his parents that he does not want money or property but rather wants Kailash for marriage. Kailash comes home one day to find her father lying on the floor after having fallen down while trying to hang up some sarees in their house.
